

t or Iced?

Story idea (one off)

A young, human woman goes to Starbucks / Hotbucks / Pambucks for a drink in the afternoon.

The barista gets frustrated when she will not answer his questions, treating him as if he is not a person (he is an anthro). She is very rude.

He takes her to the back under the pretence of having her show him what she wants.

He fucks her over the dishwasher (rape), making her body want it.

She is revolted at having an anthro and "barista coffee maker" fuck her.

"Huh. Suppose it was iced after all."
Leaves her covered in his cum and quits his job!
