

Break Me

Mador is not single - his boyfriend, Mark, is at the pub with him. They have an agreement and both are there for fun with others. The dragon attracts the attention of a muscled equine that he is well familiar with and they go upstairs to the room Mark & Mador have booked for the night.

There, the dragon is hogtied and spanked hard until his rump and thighs are glowing. From there, he is roughly bred / mounted by the horse, who calls him his 'felly'. The dragon doesn't cum.

When finished, the horse hoists Mador over his shoulder, taking the protesting dragon downstairs to the back bathroom. They encounter a few surprised / aroused onlookers. Taking him to his boyfriend at the glomhole, the horse snorts and says he has a "present" for Mark, leaving his partner before him and departing.

Mark takes advantage of the dragon's bound state to tease and sock his cock, working him into a frenzy and noting how well used his tail hole is before finally letting him cum, adding to the mess on Mark's muzzle.
